Know Your History

You want to take a stand You haven't made a plan Your new crusades bring misery Better know your history

You spot your was disease Bring this nation to its knees The largest debt we've ever seen Better know your history

Under the burning sun Another dead hero This road we're walking on To reap what we have sown A lockdown, here we go again

Foreign aid with strings attached Cut down the working class The World Bank creeps In sheep's clothing Better know your history

The masses, so dent and blind We're back to the Roman times The truth is now the enemy Better know your history

My family lived through both regimes The rising tide of lies and mass deceit They'll tell you what to think And what to say Know your history

You send the poor to fight Then praise the religious right A sacrilegious blasphemy Better know your history

An empire of greedy thieves Bring the nation to its knees The new world corporatocracy Better know your history

History For the past to repeat Is your destiny History I know we're going to pay To history
