

Pray

Illenium

Lay my soul out bear by the river, mmm
Let my bridges burn and deliver me, mmm
Bring my soul back from the rhythm
Of the chains that got me here
It ain't fair, no, it ain't, mmm

Mercy, mercy, mercy
I've no luck with the man upstairs
Help me, help me, help me

Won't you pray?
'Cause she don't hear me like she hears you pray
So just pray for me
Won't you pray?
'Cause I'm too far from heaven when I pray
So just pray for me

Oh, won't you, won't you pray for me?
Oh, won't you, won't you pray for me?
Oh, won't you, won't you pray for me?
Oh, won't you, won't you pray for me?

Mercy, mercy, mercy
Help me, help me, help me
Mercy, mercy, mercy
Help me, help me, help me
Mercy, mercy, mercy
Help me, help me, help me
Mercy, mercy, mercy
Help me, help me, help me

Help me, help me
Help me, help me

(Help me, help me)
Help me, help me
(Help me, help me)

Won't you pray?
'She don't hear me like she hears you pray
So just pray for me
Won't you pray?
'Cause I'm too far from heaven when I pray
So just pray for me

Oh, won't you, won't you pray for me?
Oh, won't you, won't you pray for me?
Oh, won't you, won't you pray for me?
Oh, won't you, won't you pray for me?
