

Heavenless

Ilse DeLange

I stand still
I'm frozen
I feel no pain
My heart start
I'm chosen I snow I fade away
My arms weak with emptiness
My soul sleeps
I am heavenless

There's no sky above me
Still shadows I can see
The darkness took over and left me free
No laughter no tenderness
Here after is heavenless
Heavenless

Alone I see
Is freezing me
The ice runs deep
Inside of me
The earth spins beneath me
As lifetime slip away
Each morning so quickly
Becoming yesterday
Afraid I die of loneliness
I'm scared that I am
Heavenless
Heavenless
Heavenless
