

Here I Am

Ilse DeLange

I know myself
I know what's deep inside of me
I've packed my bags
I've travelled far, as I can see

But with guiding wrong
and with lighting wrong
Here I am

I am lost but I can see my destination
It's clear in sight
My heart's already there
With you I felt every sad emotion
But I still wanna trust and care

Now I believed
That I could give you control
And I thought that you
Would treasure too, my very soul

But with guiding wrong
and with lighting wrong
Here I am

I am lost but I can see my destination
It's clear in sight
My heart's already there
With you I felt every sad emotion
But I still wanna trust and care

But with guiding wrong
and with lighting wrong
Here I am

I am lost but I can see my destination
It's clear in sight
My heart's already there
With you I felt every sad emotion
But I still wanna trust and care

I see it clearly now
I like where I am
