

Burn With Jesus

Immolation

Behind the walls of Christ the hypocrites recite songs to glorify their king who's died in vain they betray the holy son

Extinguishing his light
Their greed and their desire
Have torn him from his cross

They took down upon us
As their God looks down upon them
And sees them for what they are

Devoted to their saints and all their hails to Mary Confessions show their weakness
Pathetic show of faith
They ease their guilt
Through the Rosary
Their false display of piety
Condemns the God they praise

Their words of adoration
Spewing from their lips
Lie far from their hearts
Their insincere tears
Fall from lying eyes
They'll never see his kingdom they'll burn with Jesus
