

Closure

Imperative Reaction

I wish I was the one
To stop your misery
I wish I had been there
To hear you struggle to breathe

Fucking coward played it out like a saint
Hiding in plain sight
Fucking coward, now you suffer your fate
Exposed to the light

Now everyone you know
Knows everything you are
No more hiding from your shame
This is closure
Now all the things you hate
Have turned around on you
No more hiding from the blame
This is closure

I wish I was the one
To bring it all to an end
I wish I had been there
To watch you try to repent

Fucking coward played it out like a saint
Hiding in plain sight
Fucking coward, now you suffer your fate
Exposed to the light

Now everyone you know
Knows everything you are
No more hiding from your shame
This is closure
Now all the things you hate
Have turned around on you
No more hiding from the blame
This is closure
