

Bought The Ticket, Took The Ride

In Fear and Faith

So you think that I should I be a man free of sin
I've done enough to prove that I am not capable of this I'm not claiming that I'm only bad
But I'm not surprised that I've created distance from my past 365 days to go!

I was a different man!
Watch my world caught on fire!
There's been a slight change of plan!
When I wake up... the world is yours!

All of this is consequence this year could be my last!
Maybe I am crazy but either way I'm ok I'm alive today
But it won't take away this pain

One day I'm expecting to pay for the things I've done in this l ife
I've tried to take my time but it never turns out right
I know it's just a matter of time

If only all of you could see into my mind
Then you would probably find a boy who's barely clinging to lif e

Maybe I am crazy but either way (I bought the ticket and took t he ride)
I'm ok I'm alive today
But it won't take away this pain
