

Empire Of Concrete

In Legend

Lost and lone
I am king of void crowned by my own
Now I know
All the guns are equal from up close

Trees we used to climb
Girls we had in mind..
Ever easy-going through the world

Plans we had in mind
Kept them undefined
Under virgin skies - no clouds in sight

Lost but alive
Am I sentenced to give up hope?
My heart's an isle
Someone call me back from exile

Rain falls down
On the paradise turned into stone
Bloom and ease
Disappeared into thin air

Mountains we've been to
Valleys we went through

Ever easy-going around the world
Homes we tried to find
Dreams were redefined
Was it worth the dreams if dreamed unfree?

Never free
It's still a little bittersweet
All our fucking penny dreams -
Childish scenes -
Where is this life?

Lost but alive

Never free
It's still a little bittersweet
All our fucking penny dreams -
Childish scenes -
Don't you miss this life, too?
The sun breaks through...
The sun breaks through clouds of then
And I'm the boy I've always been
