

I kept your picture inside a map
I let it frame by all our places
Though you and me never made it back
They were the shelters of my mind
I wonder how did the simple things
Ever got so complicated
Why you and me followed gravity
With any parachutes declined
'cause we were lonely, lonely, oh lonely, lonely,...
But now the places did change a lot
And with them all our former traces
Your picture's still a good-looking shot
Though all your colours fade away
I started painting again, a little rusty though
You used to tell me then, not to let go...
Choose the changing
Choose rebellion
Choose the things worth living for
I'm glad we're talking
I'm glad we're dreaming
But let action follow thoughts...
'cause we were lonely, lonely, oh lonely, lonely,...
Choose the changing
Choose rebellion
Choose the things worth living for
I'm glad we're talking
I'm glad we're dreaming
But let action follow thoughts...
'cause we were lonely, lonely, oh lonely, lonely,...
(I) hold you dear to my heart
No matter what we went through
Because you're always a part
Of our different story
No matter where you're right now
I know you're doing fine
'cause the more we do change
The more we stay the same
Choose the changing
Choose rebellion
Choose the things worth living for
I'm glad we're talking
I'm glad we're dreaming
But let action follow thoughts...
Choose the changing
Choose rebellion
Choose the things worth living for
I'm glad we're talking
I'm glad we're dreaming
But let action follow thoughts...
'cause we were lonely, lonely, oh lonely, lonely,...
