Incubus

Two people touching lips Hands on each other's hips Nothing else in the world but one another The 42nd floor On a distant shore I wonder how we strayed so far from this Remember when we were Just flesh and bone. You sir, May have forgotten how good your world could be So, put down your hollow tips And kiss your lovers lips And know that fate is what you make of it Please end this (2x) Before this ends us Ends us (2x) I wanna stay inside I wanna stay inside for good I wanna stay inside For good (8x) I read the news today And everything they say Just makes me want to stay inside and wait But a part of me knows That waiting in the throes Is on a par with reading with my eyes closed "What Can I do?", You say It's just another day In the life of apes with ego trips Put down your hollow tips And kiss your lover's lips And know that fate is what we make of it Please end this (2x) Before this ends us Ends us (2x) I wanna stay inside I wanna stay inside for good I wanna stay inside For good I'm gonna stay inside I'm gonna stay inside for good I'm gonna stay inside For Good I wanna stay inside I wanna stay inside for good

I wanna stay inside Don't want to stay inside for good For good (8x) Fuck off For good (2x)
