

Sleep well tonight

Inspirational Carpets

Annie sleep well tonight
Though the brightest light
Shines on her house of white
One day your dream will come true

Tommy never told a lie
Send him home give him time
Seen the problems you get
When the heart of a man means less than a TV set

Throw your caution into the wind
Throw your papers into the river
Promise you will never go dark for the people in the park

Midnight would show thee forever
May the people see the light
Love is worth more than pearls
The jewels you sell are the finest

I'm so sorry I woke you
It was vital that we met
Tonight has taught me something
Dedication like I've never seen and never forget
