

Angel Eyes

Intwine

Seen my soul walk away
As I lay down to sleep on a bed
Made of thorns and the heat
Made me run the confusion ahead
And a sleep try and dream

Angel, Angel eyes darling I love you
Angel, Angel eyes darling, I'll be holding you tonight

Seen my soul walk away
As I lay down to sleep next to what
What ones was now is gone
Like the waves beating down on a shore
I hold on, always will

Angel, Angel eyes darling I love you
Angel, Angel eyes darling, I'll be holding you

Looked out my window
Just the other night
I was looking for your light
Shine for me one last time
Bright...
