

Hello Again

Intwine

Hello Again

Battles and wars never won by
A child that seeks in the redemption
Of the mother who lonely cries
Never let them sleep before hearing

Hello again (11x)

As the radio plays their favourite song
Of a man that's barely breathing for the 13th times of his sick and shiver life he hears a voice of angels laughin
As they say

Hello again (11x)

And all that they could do
Is wait fore it to pass
Fear is something that a man can't change
That is all they wish for
Even when they say
Even when they say, (yeah)
Even when they say goodbye
Even when they say
Even when they say, (yeah)
Even when they say goodbye

Your troubles dem always keep following you, (yeah)
Your troubles dem always keep following you
Your troubles dem always keep following you, (yeah)
Your troubles dem always keep following you

Following you, following you, following you
Following you, following you, following you

Your troubles dem always keep following you, (yeah)
Your troubles dem always keep following you

Following you, following you, following you
Following you, following you, following you
Your troubles dem always keep following you, (yeah)
Your troubles dem always keep following
