

Midnight

Iration

You want it you got it
Make your mind up let's get things clear
Your living life close to the edge
staying high like a chandelier
Patience not a strong suit
Never wanna cramp your style
But if you know what's good
Then it's understood when it's time I'll be hitting that dial so

Wait til midnight
For me maybe tease maybe
please baby hold the phone tight
Don't try to do it yourself
Wait til midnight
Holding cold alone
under the golden moonlight
Don't start ringing the bell

Lost in the moment
Pop another bottle of wine 11 o'clock hand spinning
And i can't wait to see what I find Just thinking about you Alone got me ready to run Just keep those little hands busy baby and we'll be up til we're seeing the sun and

Wait til midnight
For me maybe tease maybe
please baby hold the phone tight
Don't try to do it yourself
Wait til midnight
Holding cold alone
under the golden moonlight
Don't start ringing the bell

You want it you got it
Make your mind up let's get things clear
staying high like a chandelier
Patience not a strong suit
Never wanna cramp your style
But if you know what's good
Then it's understood

Wait til midnight
For me maybe tease maybe
please baby hold the phone tight
Wait til midnight
