

Warm Waters

Iration

You know that whatchu said
Could mean a lot of things
You did it anyway
Just to get a reaction

I've been around the block
Enough to know
That you did it all
Just to be a distraction

And even though that time goes on
And you found someone new
I never thought you were acting

On the come around
You'll be another one on your own
No one'll be laughing

And I don't care
And I feel fine
And I have memories that you left behind
And I get low
And I get high
Trying to stay clear of the changing tide

No turning my back to you
No turning my back to you

Well you've been telling tales
And I can overhear
That I don't fare well
Now that you're up in a mansion

Been on the wrong side
Of your bitterness
Too many times before
This time I don't see it passing

So come on in
Waters are warm
Paddling out
In the eye of the storm

So come right in
Waters are warm
No coming back
When you're chasing the storm

I hope that someday
You can make a change
But that's probably
Too much to be asking

On the come around
You'll be another one on your own
No one'll be laughing
