

Cries of Insanity

Iris

Taken from the wild
Living there for many years
Here in the life of style
Everything's a nemesis

Now the hour's right
And the moment's come
Heard it calling all along
A yearning to return

There isn't time
Let's get away
Enough of these cries of insanity
It's you and I
Don't be afraid
There's light in the sky
To illuminate

It's between you and I
No one else can follow us
Staying here we die
From our own hysterias

Like a UFO
In the skies at night
We must warp ourselves away
At the speed of light

There isn't time
Let's get away
Enough of these cries of insanity
It's you and I
What do you say
A secret disguise
And we're underway

Against the light you sway
As every shadow calls
You say you're falling, destruction is all I'm seeing
I am further away with each and every day

So where are we going?

There isn't time
Let's get away
Enough of these cries of insanity
It's you and I
Don't be afraid
There's light in the sky
To illuminate
