

Prisoner of the Void

Iron Savior

Have I returned from the dead a lightning was striking my head
Clarity's filling my mind
I am refined

Unlock the gate to reality
Leaving the maze to be free Tangled in a realm of fantasy and dreams
Blinded by delusion and pain
I must escape - break the chain

Countless years of existence in the cold
Now I'm at the mercy of the one I've once controlled

From far beyond the ending of all time
I saw the light saving me from the night
Eternal slave your master has returned
Obey and release me
The prisoner of the void

Uhh, I've been traveling the darkest dimension
A disembodied soul in damnation
But then I found sanctuary
Peaceful rest in my own entity

Now I realize
We have reached the final shore
Oh, I can't allow him
To destroy it anymore

From far beyond

Demons of time I have felt your embrace
Out in the vastness now I know your face
Oh I gave into the power of thought
Now I must use it to leave my Sepulchral vault

From far beyond
the ending of all time
I saw the light saving me from the night
Eternal slave
Your master has returned
Hear my command

From far beyond
I have been seeing the light
Eternal gods
Hear my entreaty and free me
Release me from the void
