

Religion

Isak Danielson

Can we say goodbye to
To the lies you told
You know I'm wiser
I've been here before
I believed your stories
At least the blind in me
You gave my eyes what they wanted to see

I've lost my reality
I've lost everything in me

You act like you're God
And you're trying too hard
But I need it
I was once a believer
Now I'm back to believing
I'm trying to be smart
But a stake through the heart but I feel it
Turning into addiction
Praying in your religion
Religion

Future doesn't matter
I'd give it up for you
Even though I know that you'd never do
You know your power
And I know it too
I'll end up in fire
Burning with you

I've lost my reality
I've lost everything in me

You act like you're God
And you're trying too hard
But I need it
I was once a believer
Now I'm back to believing
I'm trying to be smart
But a stake through the heart but I feel it
Turning into addiction
Praying in your religion
Religion

You act like you're God
And you're trying too hard
But I need it
I was once a believer
Now I'm back to believing
I'm trying to be smart
But a stake through the heart but I feel it
Turning into addiction
Praying in your religion
Religion