Ja Rule

Gotta let me live, gotta let me do for me.
Gotta let me learn, gotta let me finally be free
Even if I'm scared and it ain't fair, Gotta make it clear this heart here will be repaired.
(2x)

Follow in my foot steps and girl if you ain't scared I'm gonna be right there, I'm a be the nigga you lean on, go on, let your mind state run free Their ain't nothing but your open arms that can hold me.
Like when I'm runnin, runnin hopin the world will keep up wit me, or when I'm runnin, gunnin wantin the world to stay away from me.
Pray on, but your heart still wit me, ain't nothing but your open arms that can free me,
You know, that I'd miss every part of your body if you were gone.
How the hell can a nigga be so surrounded and feel alone and why would I be so selfish in helping stoppin your growth...
I gotta let her go.

Gotta let me live, gotta let me do for me
Gotta let me learn, gotta let me finally be free,
Even if I'm scared and it ain't fair
Gotta make it clear this heart here will be repaired

How can I move on get alot together she can do better than me anyway
But she kept on callin me sayin Your so wrong when I'm wit you everyday and I put up wit your bullshit, Your gonna make me lose it.
Hold on when you know the bond between us is so Strong,
But I had to let my angel spread her wings, and let her live and when she did she sped off and a nigga ain't seen her since. But I, I, know a kitten got nine lives and I hope she stay on her feet and eventually come back to me her foolish is pride when I look in her eyes I see shes the only one that's meant for me.

Gotta let me live, gotta let me do for me
Gotta let me learn, gotta let me finally be free
Even if I'm scared and it ain't fair
Gotta make it clear this heart here will be repaired.

I'm comin back all of my love Lovin you is the best thing I can do.

Every time I look in your eyes I see pain and all the time that you spent away from me, babe, It's obviously driving the both of us crazy, even though you left me I know you don't hate me (Your still my baby)
But I'm still runnin, runnin hopin this time you keep up wit me and you keep comin comin back But baby this time don't leave.
I gonna be right here wit you (I know you'll be right here wit me)

Gotta let me live, gotta let me do for me
Gotta let me learn, gotta let me finally be free
Even if I'm scared and it ain't fair
Gotta make it clear this heart here will be repaired.

Wowwwwww, wowwwwww yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeahhhhhhhh
It's murder INC babe

They say if you truly love something you should set it free and if it comes back to you you know its truly yours
