

I Hate Nigguz

Ja Rule

You know you're the enemy, Yance
Oh, you don't know that, do you?
I bet your black ass doesn't even know there's a war going on I'm not talking about the war on crime and drugs, I'm talking a bout the war between black people and niggers
And that's what you are, Yance
You a motherfucking nigga
Let me tell you something God, I hate niggers, but I love black people Honest, hard-working, law-abiding black people Niggers like you, you make me sick It's no problem for a nigga to get his own people hooked on dru gs, have the young girls on the corner turning five-dollar tricks
No problem for a nigga to shoot another nigga
No problem for a nigga to rob and steal from good, honest, hard-working black people
