

How Many Days

Jack Ingram

I know why you asked me here
You're not sure the coast is clear
You're about to speak your mind
This small talk is a bad sign

How many days have I been here tonight
How many days have I been here tonight

You keep stalling probably
Sink into eternity
Don't feel guilty say your lines
Breakin' my heart's not a crime

I can't take the suspense
How long can I go on like this

I can't take the suspense
How long can I go on like this

How many days have I been here tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Since I've been here tonight.
