

Monster

Michael Jackson

You can look at them climbing up the walls
You can look at them climbing out the bushes
You can find them when their letters 'bout to fall
He'll be waiting with his camera on focus
Everywhere you seem to turn there's a monster
When you look up in the air, there's a monster
Paparazzi got you scared like a monster, monster, monster

Too bad, Hollywood
(Has got you jumping like you should)
Too bad
(Has got you bouncing off the wall,
Got you drunk enough to fall)
Too bad
Hollywood
Just look in the mirror,
And tell me you like
Don't you, don't you like it?

Monster
He's a monster
He's an animal
Monster (yeah)
He's a monster
He's an animal

He's coming at ya, coming at ya rather too fast
On the ceiling momma got you in a zigzag
And you're running, and you're running just to escape it
But they're coming for the money so they take it
Everywhere you seem to turn there's a monster
When you look up in the air, there's a monster
Oh, when you see them in the street there's a monster, monster, monster

Too bad, Hollywood
(Has got you jumping like you should)
(Has got you bouncing off the wall)
(Got you drunk enough to fall)
Too bad
Just look in the mirror,
And tell me you like what you see

Monster
(He's like an animal)
He's a monster
(Just like an animal)
He's an animal
(And he's moving in the air)
Monster
He's a monster
He's an animal
(Everybody wanna be a star)

Why are they, never satisfied
With in all you give
You give them your all

They're watching you fall
And they eat yourself

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Catch me in a bad mood, flippin'
You'll take a whippin'
Animal, hannibal, cannibal addition
Tears appear, yeah, blurring your vision
Fear in the air, screaming, your blood drippin'
Shiver a second,
Now, now, now, now what is it
Funeral's, cemeteries, don't worry it's time to visit
Broke bones, tombstones, how do you think I'm kidding
Its home, sweet home, the land of the forbidden
All hell, run tell, the King has risen
Two thousand and ten Thriller, there's nothing iller, it's killer
There vision, the missin' the pack, this is that,
This the bomb, ring the alarm
MJ number 1, it's goes on and on
Its goes on and on
We get to cripplin', its running in the early morn'
Keep on dreaming there's nowhere to run
You can drive but you done
I can feel it in the air, here the monster come.

Too bad, Hollywood
(Has got you jumping like you should)
(Got you bouncing off the wall,
(Got you drunk enough to fall)
Too bad
Just making it clearer, and tell me
Don't you, don't you like it?

Monster
(Say you wanna be a star)
He's a monster
(Say you wanna go far)
He's an animal
(Why do you be stalking me)

Monster
(What did you do to me)
He's a monster
(Why did you take it why did you fake it)
He's an animal

(Why'd you go and be)
Monster
(Why you stalking me)
He's a monster
(Why you haunting me)
He's an animal

(Why'd you do it)
(Why'd you)
(Why you stalking me)

Monster
(Why you haunting me)
He's a monster
(Why you haunting me)
He's an animal

(Why'd you)
(Why'd you, oh)

He's dragging you down like a monster
He's keeping you down like a monster

He's dragging you down like a monster
He's keeping you down like a monster
