

Welcome to the bin
Looney birds out in the lobby
Yes I'm guarding my foreskin
I see the writings on the wall
Right beside the degree
Let's open up my head
And sort through the debris
Be careful what you look for that harsh reality
Be careful what you ask oh some truth won't set you free
Don't even try to act surprised it's clear the things I've done
The devil made me do it once but then I did again for fun

Because I'm crazy I'm an asshole not good company
Everything you hate but you can't get enough of me
Wish I were dead would you miss my, miss my company
Because I'm crazy I'm an asshole but you can't get enough of me
Because I'm crazy (crazy)

Should I get another day
When chaos is the last hour your hoot can't break away
The things you fear the things you love have now become the things you crave
You find me in your hands no boundaries left to save
You push and pull to put the pieces perfectly in place
Then follow down that pathway when there's no mean to trace
It's trying to buckle up again completion is your shit
Take off to touchdown heavens missed by not an inch

Because I'm crazy I'm an asshole not good company
Everything you hate but you can't get enough of me
Wish I were dead would you miss my, miss my company
Because I'm crazy I'm an asshole but you can't get enough of me

Can't get enough of me
It's what it is
Can't get enough of me
I am what I am
Can't get enough of me
Here's what I am
Can't get enough of me
Can't get enough

I'm crazy, I'm an asshole, not good company
Everything you hate, you just can't get enough of me
Wish I were dead would you miss my, miss my company
Because I'm crazy I'm an asshole but you can't get enough of me
Can't get enough of me
Crazy I'm an asshole not good company
Everything you hate but you can't get enough of me
Wish I were dead would you miss my, miss my company
Because I'm crazy I'm an asshole but you can't get enough of me
Crazy
