Yea yea yea

I feel like I done slipped up and fell somewhere inside your love
I think, I think I found that Missing these, I been searching for Glasses broke, half a heart that I have is thrived with yours baby

Are you? Are you? Are...
You're that brilliant mind, you're that one of a kind
You're that hard to find, searching your whole life
And I'm so glad that you're my love yea
Mine, all mine, all mine
Girl, you're what I need
Say forever you'll be
All mine, all mine
And I can't get enough
I'm glad that you're mine, all mine, all mine
I won't give you up, forever my baby
All mine, all mine

You know you are my best friend
What more could I ask for?
Someone who understands exactly how I feel way before I even open my mouth
Oh, what we have is weird girl
Something that you only find in fairytales girl
