

Black Cloud

Jake Miller

I've been feeling low
I don't know how to shake this
Take a couple breaths, tell myself that I'll make it through I'll make it through
I've been gettin' high just to try and erase it
Tell myself I'm fine but it's time that I face the truth
And make it through

I'm pushin' through the pain
Liftin' all this weight off of my shoulders, yeah

I swear I'm done lookin' back now
I'm gonna outrun this black cloud
Woahhhhhh, woahhhhhh
It's just a blur in the background
I'm gonna outrun this black cloud
Woahhhhhh, woahhhhhh
It's rainin' in reverse, I can finally see
I'm startin' to remember who I used to be

Only gonna spend time with friends that I fuck with Focus on myself, get some help
I won't rush it through, rush it through
I'm shuttin' off my phone, Imma drive to the ocean
I ain't coming home 'til the sky turns gold and blue
I swear I'll make it through

I'm pushin' through the pain
Liftin' all this weight off of my shoulders, yeah

I swear I'm done lookin' back now
I'm gonna outrun this black cloud
Woahhhhhh, woahhhhhh
It's just a blur in the background
I'm gonna outrun this black cloud
Woahhhhhh, woahhhhhh
It's rainin' in reverse, I can finally see
I'm startin' to remember who I used to be
