

Day By Day

Jake Miller

Can we take it slow?
Just see where it goes
Don't worry bout tomorrow cause no one fuckin' knows
No I don't wanna make
A promise I might break
Don't worry bout tomorrow lets take it day by day

Yeah day by day
I know my schedule is crazy
On my grind, can you blame me?
But I make time for my baby ohhh
Yeah, 595 goin' 80
Pick you up out in Davie
In that drop top Mercedes ohhh

Hit the road, play a show
But I'm always right back
Come and go, never know
And you probably hate that
But can you bare with me babe
And get used to the way that I

I live my life with plans in the air
Like the planes I've been catching
Nothin' compares to your love and the passion
Fully committed, don't get it twisted
Ohhh I just gotta know

Can we take it slow?
Just see where it goes
Don't worry bout tomorrow cause no one fuckin' knows
No I dont wanna make
A promise I might break
Don't worry bout tomorrow let's take it day by day

Yeah day by day
Ohhhh, ohhhh
Day by day
Ohhhh, ohhhh
Day by day

Got these dreams I've been chasing
Built it up from the pavement
I just need you to be patient ohh
Yeah, we could go so many places
Island vacations, woahh

Hit the road, play a show
But I'm always right back
Come and go, never know
But can you bare with me babe

I live my life with plans in the air
Nothin' compares to your love and the passion

Fully committed, don't get it twisted

Can we take it slow?

Yeah day by day
Ohhhh, ohhhh
Day by day
Ohhhh, ohhhh
Day by day
