

Parade

Jake Miller

The thought of you loving someone new
I just can't fathom, no
No one like, you're love was all I knew
Somewhere we crashed it, no

It always seems to rain on your parade
And all I ever wanted was the sun on your face

And all that I wanted, wanted, wanted
All that I wanted, wanted, wanted
All that I wanted, wanted, wanted
All that I wanted

When you're walking, you start smiling
That's me, that's me
When you call, I never answer
That's me, that's me
It always seems to rain on your parade
I play your fool
Swim the ocean just to prove that you're worth it, yeah
Reservation for two
Dinner, late night rendezvous without a purpose
I know you loved it

It always seems to rain on your parade
And all I ever wanted was the sun on your face

And all that I wanted, wanted, wanted
All that I wanted, wanted, wanted
All that I wanted, wanted, wanted
All that I wanted

Won't miss a good thing 'til it's gone
Ain't no way we moving on
I just want you, want you to come back to me
Let me fix what I made wrong
Without you here, this ain't a home
I just need you, need you right next to me

It always seems to rain on your parade
And all I ever wanted was the sun on your face

When you're walking, you start smiling
That's me, that's me
When you call, I never answer
That's me, that's me
It always seems to rain on your parade
