

I Was Jack (You Were Diane)

Jake Owen

It was yesterday
It was years ago
We were singing every word on the radio
Kinda like them songs that saved our souls
Somehow, someway
We was falling fast
We was jumping in
Blue jean halo hanging off the limb
Two American kids just like them
Every time they played
And it blew us away

Do you turn it up
Do you sing along
Every time you hear that song
Like we did then
Like we did when

Do you close your eyes
Does it make you laugh
Do the memories take you back
Six packs and a Chevy Cheyenne
Way back
When I was Jack and you were Diane

Yeah, we remember growing up and growing old
Breaking up or letting go
Girl's just like Rock-n-Roll
Where has it gone
But I hope like hell every now and again
I blow across your mind like that summer wind
And you're holding on to sixteen as long as you can

Every time that it comes on

Do you turn it up
Do you sing along
Every time you hear that song
Like we did then
Like we did when

Do you close your eyes
Does it make you laugh
Do the memories take you back
Six packs and a Chevy Cheyenne
Way back
When I was Jack and you were Diane

Do you turn it up
Do you sing along
Every time you hear that song
Does it still groove you
Baby, Hallelujah

Do you close your eyes

Six packs and a Chevy Cheyenne
Way back
When I was Jack and you were Diane

Yeah, way back
Way on back
When I was Jack and you were Diane
Yeah, do you close your eyes
Does it make you laugh
When I was Jack and you were Diane
Yeah, let the memories take you back
Take you back
