

Who Said Whiskey

Jake Owen

Ah boys ya'll see that blond in the back
Standin' with the bachelorettes
Yeah well I've been comin' here for the last couple years
She's about as hot as it gets

Well she's actin kinda shy but just give her awhile
Everything's about to change
No I can't hear the toast, but I know where this goes
It always happens the same

Yeah one shot'll get her out on the dance floor
One more she starts to like the taste
A few rounds later she'll be hangin on some fella
Right up in front of the stage
Another couple drinks oh they're headed to his place
Tonight is some guy's lucky day
Oh now who said whiskey was meant to drink a woman away?

Ah boys here she goes, the booze has started flowin
She's beginning to loosen up
Yeah she and all her friends are headed towards the band
They must've played a song she loves
Well she's singin' to the music
The way them hips are movin'
Looks like she's got the feelin' right
Well a slow song is comin' ya'll
She's lookin' 'round for someone
I swear it happens every time

One shot'll get her out on the dance floor
One more she starts to like the taste
A few rounds later she'll be hangin on some fella
Right up in front of the stage
Another couple drinks oh they're headed to his place
Tonight is some guy's lucky day
Oh now who said whiskey was meant to drink a woman away?

Oh with every sip she takes inhibitions go away
And a good time's all that she sees
Well excuse me boys, I gotta go and say hello
That lady looks thirsty to me

Well one shot'll get her out on the dance floor
One more she starts to like the taste
A few rounds later she'll be hangin on some fella
Right up in front of the stage
Another couple drinks oh they're headed to his place
Tonight is some guy's lucky day
Oh now who said whiskey, who said whiskey
Who said whiskey was meant to drink a woman away?
