

I'm Shook

James Brown

Ha, ha, ha, uh, ha

Here I stand waiting in vain
My tears are falling down like rain
All my friends told me someday you'd make me cry
I said they were jealous and, and it was just a lie
But here I stand, my broken heart
Why oh why did we ever have to part?
Oh, my darling, won't you ease the pain
By saying they were wrong
Don't let me stand here, you don't ease the pain
I got to stand here waiting in vain
Just stand here now, waiting in vain
I got to stand here now, waiting in vain
One, two, three

I say, here I stand, waiting in vain, ha
My tears are falling down like rain
People said that they don't know

I got to tell 'em, the thing I have, ha
I know for sure
Don't let me, don't let me leave, ha
Don't let me leave
Don't be so cruel, ha
Don't think you'll find a fool
I'm all shook up
I'm all shook up
I'm all shook up
I'm all shook up
I said I'm shook
I said I'm shook
I said I'm shook
I said I'm shook
Here I stand, just waiting in vain
My tears are falling down, down, down, like rain, ha
All of my friends, they told me someday
That you'd make me, you'd make me cry, ha
I said they, they, they were jealous
And it, and it was, and it was just a lie
Here I stand with a broken heart
