

When Was the Last Time the Music Made You Cry

James Ingram

Over there by yourself,
lost like there's no one else,
When did the love ever
Start separating, untying hearts
That are breaking
I can remember the first time
Darling you let your feelings show
And we laughed and we cried
Oh we tried weaving ourselves into one life
Our life, I've been wondering

How long has it been since you've had a friend
Where is the love we, we used to share
And I want to know, when was the last time music made you cry

Where is that old silver lining
Who stopped the sun from shining
In our own little world we just hold on Hiding from all real emotion
I don't say that the fault is mine
I could have said more but sometimes
It's not easy to make what's unspoken
Heard by a heart that's not open
Woman, I've been waiting

How long has it been since you've had a friend
Where is the love we, we used to share
And I want to know, when was the last time music made you cry

Darling, tell me what you need
Trust me, I'll be right there

Ooooooh
oh oh baby anybody who have a heart can feel the music
