

I Lie Awake Every Night

James Vincent McMorrow

Have you come here to save me?
Have you come here to waste my time again?
Ask me too many questions
Ask me too many questions I can't stand
And come out of nowhere
Put my head through a window instead of talking
Have you come here to save me?
Have you come here to waste my time again?

You'll never learn
You'll never learn how much I want to burn
I want to burn
That's the way I like it
I like it
I like all of you
Ever since I've been able
Ever since there've been weeds growing in my mind
Like a scene for the weekend
I descend into weakness [?]
I'd stop the clock
But there's some things I can't control
[?], parcel it against the wall
Against the wall

Cause you'll never learn
You'll never learn
You'll never learn how much I want to burn
I want to burn
And you'll never know
You'll never know how much I want to go
I want to go

I stare right into the gun
Thinking of ways to remind myself
That [?]
[?]
I stare right into the gun
Thinking of ways to remind myself
That [?]

That's the way I like it
I like it
I like all of you
And that's the way I like it
I like it
I like all of you
