James

72

What kind of God you dreaming of? A God of blood not love So, you can get your 72 Virgins to abuse I hope they kick like mules War, war My God's bigger than your God He made the world run out of puff More important things to do War, war It's black, it's white, a fight An elephant gray There's this universe at stake We get in the way Go left, go right, straight on Just do what they say There's a universe at stake We get in the way It's black, it's white, a fight An elephant gray There's a universe at stake We get in the way Go left, go right, straight on (War) Just do what they say There's a universe at stake (War) We get in the way War, war, war, war

You're going to murder in the name of God
