

Hello

James

You and me
Plainly saw
A vision
Hope to make
This love stretch forever
Don't let go
In this now or never
Hope there's change
Enough to save

Hello, it's over

You won't say
What you're thinking
I'm no mind reader
To the stars
We won't get any older
It's so fleeting
I am lost
When I'm torn
From your heart

Hello, it's over

Somebody dreams
A brave new world
I'm forbidden to grieve
It's birth
Late summer evening
Late summer seed
Come together
To make this dream

Hello, It's over
