Strangers

Found a message in the sand It read, "just do the best you can This worlds not how I planned You're on your own No one can hear you They're just talking all the time There's the world And you're outside Your home's hard to find Your home's hard to find

Worn down by strangers All you need is a friend You've been worn down by strangers This is not the end

Guess it's hard to settle down when love's been spread all around the town I'm no stranger to this room My highs just serve to bring me down I hope to change now From a sorry state of mind I had hoped for heart to heart My heart's hard to find My heart's hard to find

Worn down by strangers All you need is a friend You've been worn down by strangers This is the end James
