This is not
This is not
A song
This is a shield
This is a charm
With your name on

By this beat By this verse I'm protected From your heat And your curse Is reflected

If anybody hurts me If anybody hurts me

Here's a mirror with your name on Saying we're gonna miss you when you're gone Here's a mirror with your name on Saying we're gonna miss you when you're gone

Your green eyes
Poison pen
Serpent's tongue
Will return
To the source
That they came from

Revenge is the wine Forgiveness is fine Forgiveness divine Revenge is more human

Here's a mirror with your name on Saying we're gonna miss you when you're gone Here's a mirror with your name on Saying we're gonna miss you when you're gone

No words, all's been said and done No more words, all's been said and done

Here's a mirror with your name on Saying we're gonna miss you when you're gone Here's a mirror with your name on Saying we're gonna miss you when you're gone

Here's a mirror with your name on Saying we're gonna miss you when you're gone
