

Lonely Heart

Jan Wayne

(Female Voice)

What can i do, what can i say this is just another day of messing around, without a clue a lot of boring things to do i need a love, i need a friend i need somebody to take my hand if this is my world, if this is my life there must be something that still arrives everybody's looking out for a lonely heart for somebody to make a start everybody's looking out for a heart of gold for some lovin' someone to hold
everybody's looking for some love to give for some reason to make him live all that i feel, all that i know there is no better way to go i will go on, i will be strong give me the strength to carry on there'll be a love, there'll be a friend there'll be somebody to take my hand this is my world, this is my live there will be something, that still arrives
