

Wondering

Jana Kirschner

Every time you touch my skin i can feel it every time you look into my eyes i can feel it and tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow it will be fine and tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow you still will be mine

Its like snow inside now i wondering why its like rain inside now i wondering why

Every time you touch my skin i can feel it...

its like rain inside now i wondering why (2x)
