

I Am Not Alone

Jane

Tell me how lonely has it been for you
Tell me how many times you've cried
When all that you know has gone
But your world's on film
Look in the camera but not in my eyes

I am not alone
But you can't put blood in a heart of stone
I can only pray
The winds of change will blow your way
Blow your way

Oh what a price you paid look at what it cost
They don't even want what you have lost
If they'd have only asked you might have had the chance to give
Volunteer for the front
Volunteer for the hit

I am not alone
But you can't put blood in a heart of stone
I can only pray
The winds of change will blow your way
Blow your way
