

Nothing Lost Something Found

Janet Devlin

Who have I become,
Standing here alone
The child has gone
Never found a home
I've been dancing to a song
No one else can hear
I've been running from monsters
No one else fears

I've been dreaming six feet under my sheets
Silent screaming hiding in the streets

What have I done
Building myself up
Just to tear myself down
Where have you gone
Fighting shadows
When nobody else is around
Nothing lost nothing found
Who have you become
Chances are no one
After what you've done
You can't lie to everyone

Nothings easy when you wear you wear your heart on your sleeve
Words are pleasing but the truth is hard to believe

What have you done
Building yourself up
Just to tear yourself down
Where have you gone
You're fighting with shadows
When no body else is around
Nothing lost something found

I've been searching for you
I've been searching for myself
All the promises I've made
I've been keeping to myself

What have I done
Building myself up
Just to tear myself down
Where have you gone
Fighting shadows
When nobody else is around
Nothing lost nothing found
