Unloved

Jann Arden

There will be no consolation prize This time the bone is broken clean No baptism, no reprise And no sweet taste of victory

All the stars have fallen from the sky And everything else in between Satellites have closed their eyes The moon has gone to sleep

Unloved, unloved Unloved, unloved

Here I am inside a hotel Choking on a million words I said Cigarettes have burned a hole And dreams are drunk and penniless

Here I am inside my father's arms All jagged-bone and whiskey-dry Whisper to me sweetly now And tell me I will never die

Unloved, unloved Unloved, unloved

Here I am an empty hallway Broken window, rainy night I am nineteen sixty-two And I am ready for a fight

People crying hallelujah
While the bullet leaves the gun
People falling, falling, falling
And I don't know where they're falling from
Are they

Unloved, unloved Unloved, unloved

Hoping that the kindness Will lead us past the blindness And not another living soul Will ever have to feel

Unloved, unloved
