

End of the Rain

Jason Blaine

Put on your best dress honey, I wanna take you out We'll dig into next month's money for a, a night on the town
They got two-for-ones till 7:30 down at Smokey Joe's If the Spirit moves us, we can cut out early, make love to the radio, oh

Hold onto me, babe, your hand in mine
Until those clouds break and the sun comes out to shine
It won't be long now, the tide is gonna change
You can feel it on the wind blowing in, the beginning of the en d of the rain

Show me that sweet smile darling, it's gonna be alright
The wolves outside the front door know they won't find us tonig ht
'Cause we got somewhere we can be this reckless in the air
We can dance those high heels off your feet, let them not mess up your head

Hold onto me, babe, your hand in mine
Until those clouds break and the sun comes out to shine
It won't be long now, the tide is gonna change
You can feel it on the wind blowing in, the beginning of the en
d of the rain

Hold onto me, babe, your hand in mine
Until those clouds break and the sun comes out to shine
It won't be long now, the tide is gonna change
You can feel it on the wind blowing in, the beginning of the en
d of the rain
You can feel it on the wind blowing in, the beginning of the en
d of the rain
