

I Wanna Be That Man

Jason Blaine

When you have a hard day, and you just wanna scream
Feel like your gonna cry, what you really need
Is someone to make you laugh
Baby, I wanna be that man

If you've been close but never close enough
And your still searching for the kind of love
That will take a stand
Baby, I wanna be that man

No you don't have to wait any longer
We can build a dream that just keeps getting stronger

You deserve somebody who'll never let you down
Loves who you are from the inside out
With all that I am
Baby, I wanna be that man

No you don't have to wait any longer
We can build a dream that just keeps getting stronger
Yeah, yeah

No you don't have to wait any longer
We can build a dream that just keeps getting stronger

When you've had a hard day, and you just wanna scream
Feel like your gonna cry, what you really need
Is someone to make you laugh
Baby, I wanna be that man

Yeah with all I am
I wanna be, I wanna be that man

I wanna make you laugh
I wanna take a stand
Yeah, I wanna be that man

Yeah, yeah, yeah
