Jason Webley

This is where I am.
Where are you?

Message in a bottle or a time bomb?
It's hard to think it matters when everything is on,
A delay line three weeks long.

This is a picture I never saw.
And these are words I never said.
This is a lie I could never tell.
This is where I am, where are you?

Send me a postcard.
