

These Creatures

Jean-Michel Jarre

Ah ah....

They can keep singing all day
They don't speak in a sing for hundred years old
That one standing there I hear her
In the morning below that thin floor

I love her home but I dance around
It her melody wearing earth clothes
Don't go away I would like to stay
I would like her to see if she spoke to me

Ah ah.....

People dropped me here to teach me
A lesson to be with these creatures who live in a different way
If she spoke to me
I could breathe more easily
But I'm happy just to listen
To her sing

Ah ah.....

Do they know
How happy I am?
Don't go away
I would like You to stay

Ah ah....

Don't go away
I would like you to stay.
