[Verse 3: Jus Allah]

I have lived a century
I've tapped into my 6th sensery
I am a potential enemy
My entire inner chemistry, every inch of me, is divinity
Unequivically supremacy
I am undesired energy
Sends friendly, sends empty
Show the prince of peace no clemency
Give him an extremety of insensitivity
Let his kid and ministry witness his disassembly
I just lost sufference, undestructive, unproductive, tussid
Not much substance, thuggage
Above judgement
Unaware of any error of delt
Where it counts I'm a fair amount of paramount
I am body a monopoly of ungodly
The [?]
My apology, arrid, insencarity, carity, buried generic it's hilarity
