Jedward

I got to focus on the positive
And turn the switch up on the negative
No more playing it safe I'm gonna seize the day
I won't let the darkness get in my way

Because I'm hungry for you love
Don't need nobody else
I only crave your touch
Come on and give me a chance
I promise I'll be true
Yeah, I'll be under your skin
Deeper than a tattoo

I like that your completely natural
You got me flowing like a water fall
Your energies beyond incredible
Yeah, you got burning like a fireball

I can picture all the things I wanna do
It ain't no lie I'm really into you
Yeah, I can picture all the things I wanna do
Just need the perfect moment to make my move

Oh, wish maker, can you help me out
Can't live without the taste
You know what I talking about
Oh, wish maker, let our bodes touch
I'll have you feeling so fabulous
Oh, wish maker, can you help me out
Can't live without the taste
You know what I talking about
Oh, wish maker, let our bodes touch
I'll have you feeling so fabulous
