

Thugs Club

Jeff Beck

Looking for Larry, has somebody seen him?
Last seen with a case full of cash down 8th
Singing 'all right'. Larry's all right.

We're going after Larry
'Cos we got some questions.
'Cos some of his sums don't add up.
But as long as little Larry's all right.
Yeah, people like Larry are always all right.

So we'll feed your greed
'Til you're too fat to run.
Then you'll hear the 'bang bang'
Of the poor man's gun.

Watch out!

Looking for David, has somebody seen him?
His ignorant statement's brainwashing my nation.
But as long as Davy's all right.
Davy's all right.

We're going after George that creepy little puppet.
There's real men in those battleships baby. Ah fuck it.
As long as Georgie's Porgie's all right.
Generations of Georges are always all right.

So we'll sit and watch the horrible things that you do
And if someone points a finger near you.
You'll just blame it on the...

'Cause it's a rich man's war
And only the rich will win.
Sit in their towers watching men suffering.
But we won't fight your war no more.

'Cause it's a rich man's game
And only the super rich win.
Sit in their towers watching men suffering.
But we won't fight your war no more.

Looking for Rupert last seen with the devil.
He's buying him diamonds. Australia's finest.
Rupert's all right.
As long as he's selling papers
He'll sleep tight at night.

And Melissa and Sean who work for the Foxes.
Your presentation's crass
And your opinions aren't facts.
When you dumb down the news
You dumb down the future
Then you can just tell us what you want
And us 'dumb dumbs' will believe ya.

So we'll sit and watch the horrible things that you do
And if someone points a finger near you.

You'll just blame it on the...

'Cause it's a rich man's war
And only the rich will win.
Sit in their towers watching men suffering.
But we won't fight your war no more.

'Cause it's a rich man's game
And only the super rich win.
Sit in their towers watching men suffering.
But we won't fight your war no more.

We're looking for leaders, royals, actors and singers.
Anyone polluting this world with bile and venom.
Not compassion, understanding, responsibility and hugs.
Those people who use their power to spit hate and not to spread love.
