

selfish

Jeremy Zucker

What do I gotta do to make you all mine
What do I gotta say to make it all smiles
You got other things to do than waste my time
'Cause I've been so selfish
And I just can't help it, yeah

Girl just slow down
There ain't nobody faster in this whole town
But I just got caught up in all this phony
Bullshit about how I should be lowkey
When you won't even speak to me

So what do I gotta do to make you all mine
And what do I gotta say to make it all smiles
You got other things to do than waste my time
'Cause I've been so selfish
And I just can't help it, yeah

I've been so selfish (all I want to know)
I've been so selfish (I don't want to go)
I've been so selfish (all I want to know)
And I just can't (really I don't [?])
And I just can't

And I never thought that you stabbed my back
But I should have known when you dance like that 'Cause even my friends could have told me twice
And I should have followed my own advice
I should have let you go eons ago
To watch the world spin on my own, but Isn't that selfish

This heart, this soul
Unwilling to let go
I swear, I care
Just not when you're not here
I know I don't Have any self control
To let go and it feels so good
Just like you said you would

So what do I gotta do to make you all mine
And what do I gotta say to make it all smiles
You got other things to do than waste my time
'Cause I've been so selfish
And I just can't help it

(I've been so selfish) All I want to know
(I've been so selfish) I don't want to go
(I've been so selfish) All I want to know
(And I just can't) really I don't [?]
