

When Gentry Plays Guitar

Jessica Andrews

When Gentry plays guitar
It's like a song Leon sang long ago
When Gentry plays guitar
The girls at the bar watch him roll away the stone
Pisces apple lady, Delta Queen
When he lets down his long, brown hair
I wish he belonged to me
But he don't he belongs to the song
And the melody
When Gentry plays guitar

When Gentry sings his song
He's all alone in a glass house
Made of stone
When Gentry sings a song
His mom and dad and his sisters all sing along
Sweet home Oklahoma, prince of peace
When he lets down his long, brown hair
I wish he belonged to me
But he don't he belongs to the song
And the melody
When Gentry plays guitar

In conversation you will drown
In his deep dark eyes
But salvation is sweet
'Cause he gives you a rose
And you realize

When Gentry plays guitar
It's like a song Leon sang long ago
When Gentry plays guitar
The girls at the bar watch him roll away the stone
Pisces apple lady, Delta Queen
When he lets down his long, brown hair
I wish he belonged to me
But he don't he belongs to the song
And the melody
When Gentry plays guitar
He belonged to the melody
When Gentry played guitar
How I wish he belonged to me
Be he don't
He belongs to the song and the melody
He belonged to me
When Gentry plays guitar
